Jet One, LLC. has a competitive advantage in the luxury apartment market.

A new Greensburg, PA based company is providing a unique twist to the local luxury apartment market Jet One, LLC. : Pilot Owned - Pilot Managed - Pilot Designed

By David M. Morrison

Who else better to ask about room accommodations when contemplating your next out of town stay? How about four experienced international pilots with a passion in real estate.

Jet One, LLC. is locally owned and operated by four experienced international pilots who are using their wealth of experiences to gain a competitive edge in the luxury apartment market. Pilots probably stay at more hotels and resorts than any other business traveler put together.

International pilots are very familiar with the vast differences in culture, architecture and the latest in room creature features.

Jet One, LLC. has the advantage of drawing from it's owners rich resources of global travel to stay ahead of its competition with state of the art management and design.

If you are lucky enough to experience a stay in a Jet One property, you will most likely enjoy the attention to detail in accommodations and building selection. What better business model can you think of than this!

JETONELLC.COM allows prospective residence to view future available accommodations.

The new Greensburg based company will provide a fresh new twist to luxury apartment living.

Let Jet One, LLC. take you to your next unique luxury apartment destination.
